

March 7, 2014

Shaun Poulter
Senior Director

Government Relations
CBC/ Radio-Canada

Dear Mr. Poulter,

The Standing Senate Committee on Transport and Communications is extending a formal invitation to Esther Enkin, CBC Ombudsman to appear at one of its upcoming hearings.

Ms. Enkin is being invited as part of the committee's study into the challenges faced by the CBC. On December 9, 2013, the Senate adopted the following motion authorizing the study.

Extract from the Journals of the Senate of December 9, 2013:

The Honourable Senator Housakos, for the Honourable Senator Dawson, moved, seconded by the Honourable Senator Fortin-Duplessis:

That the Standing Senate Committee on Transport and Communications be authorized to examine and report on the challenges faced by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in relation to the changing environment of broadcasting and communications; and

That the committee report to the Senate from time to time, with a final report no later than June 30, 2015 and that the committee retain all powers necessary to publicize its findings until 180 days after the tabling of the final report.

After debate,

The question being put on the motion, it was adopted

Please contact me at 613-993-4874 or daniel.charbonneau@sen.parl.gc.ca to discuss a mutually convenient time for the attendance before the committee.

Daniel Charbonneau

Committee Clerk

Le 7 mars 2014

Shaun Poulter
Premier directeur

Relations gouvernementales
CBC/ Radio-Canada

M. Poulter,

Le Comité sénatorial permanent des transports et des communications invite formellement M. Pierre Tourangeau, ombudsman de Radio Canada à comparaître à l'une de ses prochaines audiences.

M. Tourangeau est invité à témoigner dans le cadre de l'étude sur les défis que doit relever la Société Radio-Canada en matière d'évolution du milieu de la radiodiffusion et des communications. Le 9 décembre 2013, le Sénat a adopté la motion suivante pour autoriser l'étude.

Extrait des Journaux du Sénat du 9 décembre 2013 :

L'honorable sénateur Housakos, au nom de l'honorable sénateur Dawson, propose, appuyé par l'honorable sénatrice Fortin-Duplessis,

Que le Comité sénatorial permanent des transports et des communications soit autorisé à examiner, en vue d'en faire rapport, les défis que doit relever la Société Radio-Canada en matière d'évolution du milieu de la radiodiffusion et des communications;

Que le Comité fasse périodiquement rapport au Sénat, avec présentation d'un rapport final au plus tard le 30 juin 2015, et qu'il conserve tous les pouvoirs nécessaires pour faire connaître ses conclusions pendant 180 jours après le dépôt du rapport final.

Après débat,

La motion, mise aux voix, est adoptée.

Prière de me contacter au 613-993-4874 ou à daniel.charbonneau@sen.parl.gc.ca afin de discuter d'un temps opportun pour une comparution devant le comité.

Daniel Charbonneau

Committee Clerk

SENATE

SÉNAT

STANDING SENATE COMMITTEE ON TRANSPORT
AND COMMUNICATIONS

COMITÉ SÉNATORIAL PERMANENT
DES TRANSPORTS ET DES COMMUNICATIONS

March 6, 2014

Shaun Poulter
Senior Director

Government Relations
CBC/ Radio-Canada

Dear Mr. Poulter,

The Standing Senate Committee on Transport and Communications is extending a formal invitation to Mr. Peter Mansbridge, Chief Correspondent of CBC News to appear at one of its upcoming hearings.

Mr. Mansbridge is being invited as part of the committee's study into the challenges faced by the CBC. On December 9, 2013, the Senate adopted the following motion authorizing the study.

Extract from the Journals of the Senate of December 9, 2013:

The Honourable Senator Housakos, for the Honourable Senator Dawson, moved, seconded by the Honourable Senator Fortin-Duplessis:

That the Standing Senate Committee on Transport and Communications be authorized to examine and report on the challenges faced by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in relation to the changing environment of broadcasting and communications; and

That the committee report to the Senate from time to time, with a final report no later than June 30, 2015 and that the committee retain all powers necessary to publicize its findings until 180 days after the tabling of the final report.

After debate,

The question being put on the motion, it was adopted

Please contact me at 613-993-4874 or daniel.charbonneau@sen.parl.gc.ca to discuss a mutually convenient time for the attendance before the committee.

Daniel Charbonneau

Committee Clerk

March 6, 2014

Shaun Poulter
Senior Director

Government Relations
CBC/ Radio-Canada

Dear Mr. Poulter,

The Standing Senate Committee on Transport and Communications is extending a formal invitation to Mr. Rémi Racine, Chairman of the Board of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation to appear before it at the earliest available opportunity.

Mr. Racine is being invited as part of the committee's study into the challenges faced by the CBC. On December 9, 2013, the Senate adopted the following motion authorizing the study.

Extract from the Journals of the Senate of December 9, 2013:

The Honourable Senator Housakos, for the Honourable Senator Dawson, moved, seconded by the Honourable Senator Fortin-Duplessis:

That the Standing Senate Committee on Transport and Communications be authorized to examine and report on the challenges faced by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in relation to the changing environment of broadcasting and communications; and

That the committee report to the Senate from time to time, with a final report no later than June 30, 2015 and that the committee retain all powers necessary to publicize its findings until 180 days after the tabling of the final report.

After debate,

The question being put on the motion, it was adopted

Please contact me at 613-993-4874 or daniel.charbonneau@sen.parl.gc.ca to discuss a mutually convenient time for the attendance before the committee.

Daniel Charbonneau

Committee Clerk